BODY OF H. W. THREKELD ARRIVES FROM FRANCE

The body of Harry Worton Threlkeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar Threlkeld, of this city, arrived from France by way of Hoboken and Louisville Sunday morning. Charles M. Vatka, a soldier, accompanied the body from Louisville.

The remains were encased in a handsome copper lined casket, appropriately draped with a large American flag of beautiful texture. On arrival here the casket containing the body was taken to the Threlkeld home in Bellville street. The residence had previously been decorated with the national colors in honor of the son who had given his life for the flag.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Hosea C. Paris. The church was filled with sympathetic friends to pay a last respect to the dead soldier boy. The remains were laid to rest in the Marion cemetery.

Harry Worton Threlkeld left Marion with the contingent of May 25, 1918, for Camp Taylor. A short time afterward he was transferred to Camp Beauregard, Ala., where he remained until August 25, 1918, when he sailed for France, landing there on September 9. He remained a few days in rest camp at St. Florent, then left for the battle front with Ambulance Co. 154 Tr. 114, and arrived in two days journey of the front when the Armistice was signed. He died of bronchial pneumonia following an attack of flu, on December 12, 1918, and was buried at St. Florent.

METHODISTS KNOW NO LET UP

With the same inspiration, organization and determination with which they launched and carried to a successful conclusion their great Centenary Subscription Drive, they are now keeping their people enthused over the collection of these pledges.

Southern Methodists of Kentucky have appointed Nov. 21-28 as Pay-Up Week.

The secretaries are being cheered by the assuring messages of full collections and fine reports of treasurers to pass on the good news, which in turn, is arousing the Church throughout the state.

The membership of each Methodist Conference felt the honor of a part in the subscription effort of the summer of 1919, and the outgrowth of that feeling and success, is the present expression of faith in the Centenary and the forward movements being inaugurated by the local and connectional offices.

CHANCE TO GET INSTITUTE

Editor Crittenden Press:

The Commissioner of Agriculture has placed your county on tentative circuit of Farmers' Institutes. Your people can get this interesting program if they want it bad enough to make the advance man believe you will turn out for it. The Department has secured the services of men and women from the various state agricultural institutions and several from other states together with practical farmers. The farmer of today is called upon to have a greater diversity of information than the business man. This is a rare opportunity and you do yourself an injustice if you fail to get the program for your county.

KIDNAPPED GIRL IS FOUND

A news dispatch from Salem to the Paducah News-Democrat states that Miss Cora Hosick, 16-year-old Salem girl, who was kidnapped from the home of her mother, Mrs. Maud Ladd, of near Salem, on Monday, September 20, has been returned home.

Miss Hosick, according to the story she is alleged to have told on her arrival home, was walking down the road near her home when a man driving an automobile asked her to take a ride, and she did. Later he refused to let her out and she was taken to a town near Chicago. At that place the kidnapper sent a telegram to her mother telling her that Miss Hosick was well and being taken care of.

Later the girl managed to mail her mother a letter, and the sheriff of Livingston county was sent there and the girl was found, but the kidnaper was gone before the officer arrived there.

17 MEN IMPRISONED IN BURNING MINE

Fire, believed to have originated from an electric wire, was discovered near the opening of the Arnold coal mine, near Earlington, Tuesday afternoon at 1:50 o'clock. Seventeen miners, three white and fourteen colored, were imprisoned in the burning mine and at the time this was written were believed to be dead. The raging fire prevented any attempt at rescue until midnight. Then a rescue party entered the mine only to be driven back by the smoke a short distance from the entrance.

At the mouth of the mine wives, mothers and children waited in suspense for news of loved ones who were trapped in the blazing mine. Efforts to communicate with the entombed men were in vain. Little hope was held for their safety.

Efforts to rescue them through an air shaft proved unavailing. Air was forced into the mine through an emergency pipe from compressors, and the only hope was that they might be able to get to this air and escape suffocation. An effort was being made to tunnel around the fire-eaten portion of the shaft and reach the men in that manner.

Society

The members of the Ladies Aid and Missionary Societies of the Methodist church entertained in the basement of the church Tuesday afternoon of last week in honor of Mesdames Wm. J. Deboe, Miles Flanary and G. P. Dillon. Mrs. Deboe has been President of the Ladies Aid for twenty years and by her efficient management has added many dollars to the treasury of the church, and gained the love of every member during that time. Mrs. Flanary, a faithful and loyal member of both societies for seventeen years, leaves Thursday for Phoenix, Arizona for the winter. Many regrets were expressed over her departure, and every body wished her a pleasant trip and enjoyable stay in the land of perpetual sunshine and flowers. Mrs. Dillon, the wife of the new pastor, met for the first time many of the ladies of the church. About sixty ladies were present. Delightful refreshments were served.

Messrs. Charles L. Cassady and Doyle Vaughn were hosts at a theatre party, Friday night, Nov. 5th, in honor of Miss Virginia Flanary, who has gone to Phoenix, Ariz., to spend the winter. CIRCUIT COURT NEWS

The fall term of the Crittenden County Circuit Court convened Monday morning with Judge Carl Henderson on the bench. Commonwealth Attorney Chas. Ferguson and County Attorney John A. Moore were on hand to look after the business of the commonwealth.

After the general routine of business the following grand jury was empaneled: M. K. Givens, F. E. Cruce, C. A. Watson, W. H. Graves, J. R. Cook, F. M. Chandler, Galen Dixon, Elvis Andrews, W. H. Morris, L. H. Franklin, E. F. Sullenberger, J. N. Boone.

Judge Henderson in giving his usual instructions to the grand jury called special attention to the laws against profiteering. He told the jury that the prices paid for coal in Marion needed investigation, the prices on coal being, he understood, higher than at Princeton or any other neighboring town. He instructed the jury that coal dealers had no right to combine and agree to sell coal at a certain price in order to get higher prices.

Coal dealers, he told the jury, had no right to make agreement with wholesale dealers not to sell coal to any person who wanted to buy, thus giving the home dealers a monopoly.

Such things, the Judge said, were violations of the law and if guilt is shown, indictments should be returned against the party or parties.

He also instructed the jury to investigate the prices at which clothing, food products, etc., are sold.

Merchants, he told the jury, had no right to combine and agree to sell certain goods at a certain price, in order to make a greater profit on the goods.

Judge Henderson also called the jury's attention to violations of election laws. If any such violators were found in either party, he said, they should be indicted and punished.

The following petit jury was empaneled: J. R. Croft, E. O. Manley,

W. E. Fritts, J. M. Barnes, J. M.

Duvall, J. B. Farmer, H. C. Truitt,

Silas Guess, J. H. Patmor, J. L.

Chandler, M. R. Deboe, J. W. Givens.

Scott Hunter, sheriff of Hopkins county, was shot and fatally wounded at Madisonville Friday night of last week by Lee Ellison, a negro, while resisting arrest by the officer for attempting to slash his wife's throat. His wife stated that Ellison had also killed two policemen in Alabama and one at Cairo, Ill. Sheriff Hunter died the next morning.

It was reported a few days ago that Ellison had been surrounded in a woods near Mayfield and captured but the prisoner proved not to be the man wanted. Ellison is still at large.

INCREASED EFFICIENCY REPORTED BY ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Proof of increased operating efficiency is found in freight movement figures of the Illinois Central for the month of October. A new record was made in the average miles per freight car per day, a new record in the average number of tons carried per car and the second highest record in the history of the road in the number of net ton miles of freight handled in a single month. The figures are announced by President C. H. Markham in a statement made public today.

The average number of miles traveled per day by all freight cars on the lines of the Illinois Central in October was 44.59. The previous high record was made in June 1917, 44.38 miles, a period when refrigerator car movement, which has a heavy influence on car-mileage figures, was at its height. That this record was excelled in October, without the heavy refrigerator car movement, adds even more to the proof of increased efficiency.

The average number of tons carried by all loaded cars also reached a new record—31.3 tons.

The net ton miles of freight handled (the number of tons carried one mile) on the Illinois Central in October was 1,598,557,000, the second highest month in the history of the road. The record month was August, 1920, when 1,606,406,000 net ton miles were handled.

Mr. Markham's announcement also shows the gains which have been made in operating efficiency since April, when the strike of "outlaw" switchmen, then at its height, had a paralyzing effect on freight movement.

The increase in the net ton miles of freight handled over April was 32.6 per cent and in the average car miles per day was 25.6 per cent.

The increase in the average load carried per day over May, when car loading reached the low mark of the eight month period, was 15.5 per cent.

"Patrons of the railroads can add very materially to the improvement of service by urging heavier loading of freight cars," Mr. Markham said.

"The increasing of the average load of freight cars is a means of improving service almost wholly within the province of shippers."

The figures announced by President Markham are for the Illinois Central system, including the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley Railroad.

There has been plenty of such evidence in the Marion papers lately, and this straightforward testimony has established a confidence in the minds of Marion people that will not be easily shaken.

MAKING OR BREAKING.

Bringing up the children is a problem to all parents.

The character of a child is moulded principally in its younger years, and it seldom leaves the pathway it has been trodding in those days.

It is made or broken by its parents.

Some parents are always kind to their children, but firm, insisting upon implicit obedience. The world is full of such children, now grown to manhood, and they are dominating the really important affairs of the world.

Other parents are weak and vacillating. They coax, wheedle, storm, rave and threaten—but never punish. They are not obeyed and are often defied. The world is also peopled with these children, now men. Much of the peopling is within the four walls of a jail or a penitentiary.

It is a problem indeed, but one which many parents fail to solve until too late.

The children do it for them—in their own way.

PREACHER SENT TO JAIL

Jean Stewart, a colored minister of the Missionary Baptist church, was arrested Wednesday charged with a breach of the peace and later was brought before County Judge R. L. Moore for trial. County Attorney John A. Moore representing the commonwealth and the accused representing himself.

The evidence of witnesses showed that Stewart, who had married a daughter of Henry McGill, a colored citizen of this city, went to the McGill home and demanded his wife, who had been staying at her father's home for some time. His wife, because of alleged former cruel treatment by her husband, refused to go with Stewart and ran into an upstairs room and locked the doors behind her. With dire threats Stewart demanded his father-in-law to open the door, which McGill refused to do; whereupon the minister, after threatening to kill the whole outfit, proceeded to kick the door and to pound it with a club. Failing to get in, he went to the windows and with a club broke all the glass panes therein; then proceeded to demolish the furniture and all other demolishable articles that came in his way. McGill, seeing he would soon have nothing left, not even his shelter, told his daughter for God's sake come out and go with her husband, which she did.

In the meantime the neighbors, hearing the screams, cuss words and other war like demonstrations at the McGill home, called for officials of the law and Stewart was arrested.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty and placed a fine of $50 and ten days in jail. He was given into the custody of Jailer Belt and placed behind the bars. Stewart's home is in Hopkinsville.

SAVERS AND SPENDERS.

Can you recall the little incidents of your young days?

Perhaps you remember some child who was "close" with his pennies, who put them in his bank and kept them there.

That child, even in its tender years, was imbued with the habit of saving and was cultivating the budding idea of thrift.

If you can locate that child today you will probably find a man who has made a commercial success of life, who is financially at ease, even if not wealthy.

The child who saves his pennies in time becomes the man who accumulates his dollars.

But the one who spends his pennies as fast as he gets them generally finds that in after years the habit has fastened itself upon him to such an extent that his life becomes one of endless spending—always earning money but never having a surplus dollar.

The greatest financial injury you can do your child is to encourage it to go out and spend its few cents.

It marks the beginning of a bad ending.

For it is easier for a leopard to change its spots than for the spender to be anything but what he is.

TELL IT TO THE EDITOR.

Every newspaper editor is desirous of printing all of the legitimate news of his subscription field. That is the object of paper.

But, unfortunately an editor is partly human—he at least is molded in human form. He does not possess a dozen pair of hands or legs, or eyes, or ears for the collection of this vast fund of information.

That is why the editor urges you to tell him what you know—to keep him informed of the doings of yourself and family, of your friends, or of the community in general.

It is the only way to make a good paper—and a good paper is one of the prime requisites to a good community in which to live and do business.

Tell it to the editor.

He'll tell others—if it is reliable.

Plain duties are often not relished simply because they are plain. A little of the spectacular injected into them would cause their performance with alacrity.

Calumet Gold Cake Recipe

Yolks of 8 eggs, 1½ cups of granulated sugar, ½ cup of water, ½ cup of butter, 2½ cups pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 tablespoon of vanilla. Then mix in the regular way.

Every newspaper editor is desirous of printing all of the legitimate news of his subscription field. That is the object of paper.

But, unfortunately an editor is partly human—he at least is molded in human form. He does not possess a dozen pair of hands or legs, or eyes, or ears for the collection of this vast fund of information.

That is why the editor urges you to tell him what you know—to keep him informed of the doings of yourself and family, of your friends, or of the community in general.

It is the only way to make a good paper—and a good paper is one of the prime requisites to a good community in which to live and do business.

Tell it to the editor.

He'll tell others—if it is reliable.

Plain duties are often not relished simply because they are plain. A little of the spectacular injected into them would cause their performance with alacrity.

JOKES BY JURY

One of the most brutal premeditated murders ever committed in this country occurred in Chicago.

Carl Wanderer, a former army officer, shot to death his wife and their unborn child and a "poor boob" who had been hired to stage a fake holdup.

A jury of men supposedly sane, fixed his punishment at twenty-five years in the penitentiary. Good behavior will reduce it to fourteen years.

Decent people the country over have been both amazed and disgusted with this verdict.

It is becoming so increasingly difficult to mete out justice through the medium of men juries that courts and prosecutors are beginning to consider calling in the women for jury service.

It is painfully evident that their sense of honor, right and justice is far superior to that of modern man.

A jury of women might hesitate at the death sentence, but they at least would have given this human monster a life sentence in the penitentiary.

The correction of these nauseating jokes by jury appear to be up to the womanhood of our country.

A MESSAGE FOR YOU.

It won't do you a bit of harm to look at the goods advertised in this paper.

Merchants can not afford to pay printing bills in order to advertise something that won't "stack up" on inspection. That is not the home way.

Every ad in this paper contains information of value to some person, perhaps you are that person—but you can't tell without reading the ads.

KIDS WITH THE KIDS

The children in a certain home we might mention seldom get lonesome. They have little desire for the abandonment of the street, which is so dear to most children of their age.

But there is a reason. In their hours of relaxation the parents forget the years that have flown and call up the days of their own childhood.

They enter into sport with their children, and take an interest in those things which please the little ones most.

They are comrades as well as parents, and because they are such the child does not find it necessary to drift away from home in search of enjoyment.

This training policy of the parents has its beneficial results in two ways. Through constant intimate contact their own superior knowledge is gradually imparted to the children each day in a manner that a child can readily understand.

And it keeps the freshness of youth in their own mature hearts.

For, after all, people are only as old as they feel.

It is better to be a year ahead of your time than a day behind. The fellow who lags behind seldom catches up, but the man in the lead can always drop back when advisable.

A Chicago school teacher recently gave up his job and opened up a beauty shop. He remarked, in substance, that in these days the man who dispenses knowledge has nothing before him but the poor house, while wealth and fame awaits the fellow who can hang artificial beauty onto an ugly mug.

"Is the dead past ever really dead?" inquires an exchange. We don't know. Ours has always been painfully alive.

"Lucky is the woman who can tell a lie when she hears it," says an exchange. But some don't wait to hear it, and neither do some men.

If you find a button off your coat be gallant and tell your wife when she is busy. It will afford her an excuse for forgetting it.

Reverses are depressing only to those who give in to them.

THE COLYUM

Alas just as I thought there was going to be some action toward getting my pet bridge fixed up it seems as if the pesky thing were going to back fire. Mr. G. D. Kemp had promised the city council that if they would put in a culvert to the creek he would build a concrete walk along his property. The culvert is in place all right but the rest of the construction seems to be at a standstill.

There is a movement on foot to improve the Salem road out as far as Crooked Creek. Magistrate Davidson has proposed that if the county will put up half the money he will raise the other half by subscription. He has a very neat sum already subscribed and hasn't quit yet. Let the good work go on. If this work is done it will permit a few farmers who live near town to get in to do a little shopping during the winter months.

Speaking of roads our county engineer has done a great deal of work in the county this year. Notably the Tribune "Hollow" and the creek bed on the Repton road. Much work has been done on the Salem road also though it isn't the best highway in the county yet. Out between Repton and Tribune there is quite a stretch of as good a dirt road as you will find anywhere. If Friend Travis could get the farmers of the different communities interested in their roads enough to drag them after the rains there would be a wonderful improvement all over the county. Of course this would not eliminate the stairways on the rocky hills but it would prevent a lot of the "chuck" holes.

Some day we are even going to have a new court house. Let us hope that when it is planned there will be provisions made for a room for the ladies who come in from the country to do their shopping.

Marion has a wonderful opportunity and Crittenden a wonderful future if they will only pitch in and help nature out a little.

And I thank you, W. P. H.

Miss Josie Worley is to be the city assessor this fall. She has been assisting the county tax commissioner this year and every one concedes that W. K. Powell can use a pretty fine comb in finding property and with such training as this Miss Josie might find a little more revenue for Marion the coming year.

Meantime would it not be a good idea to get plans under way for a waterworks and sewer system for Marion so that when conditions warrant to begin construction that all the preliminary work would be done and construction could begin immediately?

And when the work on this was complete the streets could all be macadamized in the residence sections, paved in the business section we could have ornamental street lights around the square, the show windows in all the stores attractively lighted at night instead of only two—and other up to date things that would make Marion the most favorably talked of town in the state.

People like to make themselves attractive by wearing nice clothes. Why shouldn't a town "dress up"?

Some day we are even going to have a new court house. Let us hope that when it is planned there will be provisions made for a room for the ladies who come in from the country to do their shopping.

Marion has a wonderful opportunity and Crittenden a wonderful future if they will only pitch in and help nature out a little.

And I thank you, W. P. H.

The NEW EDISON

THE THREE MILLION DOLLAR PHONOGRAPH

Thomas A. Edison invented the phonograph in 1877. Later he improved his original phonograph to a point where his business advisers said to him: "You now have the best phonograph in existence. Let's go ahead and market it."

Mr. Edison shook his head and replied: "I am not going to put out a new phonograph until it is so perfect that its reproduction of music cannot be detected from the original music."

Thomas A. Edison spent three million dollars in cold cash to develop an instrument which matched the human voice and all kinds of musical instruments so perfectly that the original could not be told from the reproduction—or RE-CREATION, as it is now called.

We are prepared to sell you today an exact duplicate of Edison's three million dollar Phonograph. You may even have extended terms of payment, if you desire that accommodation. First of all, however, we want you to hear this wonderful new instrument.

May we have the pleasure of demonstrating to you that Music's RE-CREATION is a reality and not merely a fanciful phrase?

Hogs Pay Big Money

Mr. Pete Wing of Hawk Point, Mo., made a lot of money out of his hogs. He says: "I fed them Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription. It has given wonderful results in putting gains on them with less feed. They were on heavy feed for only a month; averaged a gain of 2½ pounds daily and were only 7 months, 10 days old when sold."

Mr. Wing profited by the advice of Dr. LeGear, graduate Veterinarian and expert poultry breeder of 28 years standing.

Mr. Wing's Hog Prescription will put weight on your hogs also, because it expels worms, purifies the blood and conditions them so that they gain flesh on less feed.

It makes no difference what ailment is prevalent among your stock or poultry, it is money in your pocket to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer, on a satisfaction or money back offer.
